Profile: Gil Kim

Hello! My name is Giljun Kim. I'm from Korea, but I lived in Japan for three years. When I was 17 years old, I quit high school, so I made about 1500 Australian dollars and I went to Japan. I wanted to go to a Korean art university, but it is very expensive. I couldn't get a part time job and go to school because I couldn't work and study at the university at the same time.

When I arrived in Japan, I couldn't speak or write Japanese, so I worked in a job which had very low pay and was very hard work. However, I met some good people. After a year I had to go to military service. When I got back to Korea, I had six months until I had to enlist in the navy, and I had money, so I could enrol in the art university. In the navy, I thought I wanted to see the wide world more, so again, I went to Japan. Fortunately, I got a good job because I was a good Japanese speaker. I wanted to go to university in Japan so I studied at university while working. I got a good score in the exam and received a scholarship from Japan's government. I enrolled in philosophy at Hosei University.

After entering the philosophy course, I could study a lot about what people need to be happy, so I came to have a dream that whoever wanted to study should not be restricted, so I have been thinking about how to make a school which is very cheap. In addition, if I can use English, I could meet a partner who thinks like me and we can translate from Korean to Japanese to English. If so, anyone will be able to study in their mother tongue, which we would provide in captions. Therefore, I am studying English for my dream of helping poor people.

STUDENT MOVIE REVIEW

“Bad Boys II”, directed by Michael Bay

Review by Aoi “Roy” Hiyama

The film is called “Bad Boys II” and is directed by Michael Bay and stars Will Smith and Martin Lawrence, both of whom act as main characters.

The plot of this film is the following: Two policemen in Miami are on duty to expose where illegal drugs are coming from. The action takes place in Miami, U.S.A and Smith and Lawrence’s characters are just crazy. They are cops but they don’t try to save citizens– they just do what they want to do. They also have an intense gun action and car chase scene in the movie.

I’ve watched it 2 times and it’s a very funny movie. If you ever get depressed or something like that, just watch it and you will soon be fine. This is the reason why I like it. There two actors are so funny that I’m sure you’ll be satisfied. Watch it!

Maid for the Billionaire*, by Ruth Cardello

Review by Anna Grandits

Abby’s a nice, young and pretty girl who works as a courageous teacher. She teaches kids of foreign backgrounds in English and is really happy with her life. But she also know how hard life can be. Her parents died in a tragic accident so she had to look after her little sister and had to grow up quickly. They hadn’t much money and the past had sometimes been quite difficult because her little sister often got in trouble.

One day she met Dominic. He’s a smart, attractive and successful businessman. Unfortunately, he also had a sad and difficult childhood with a cold and strict father who had locked Dominic and his family in their house. One day his mother apparently committed suicide. Dominic never believed in these investigations and had accepted that his father had kicked his mother out of the house. So after a big argument, he left their house forever. He tried to find his mother for years but never found her. While he became a businessman, he slowly destroyed his father’s companies.

What will happen with these two exciting people? What will the future hold for them? You have to find out by yourself.
